Office of the President

Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington DC 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I would like to invite you to nominate one of your civilian employees for the Senior Research Fellow program at National Defense University. Senior Research Fellows, military officers at the O-5 and O-6 levels or government civilians of equivalent rank, are assigned to the Research and Publication Directorate for one year during which they research and write on a subject of their choice pertaining to the national defense community. They receive administrative support, office space, and travel funding from the University while their salaries are paid by their sponsoring agencies. Their studies are edited, published and distributed worldwide by the National Defense University Press. Senior Research Fellows may enroll at The National War College or the Industrial College of the Armed Forces, however, I recommend civilian participants forego this option in favor of full-time research and writing.

The National Defense University would greatly benefit from the participation of an outstanding employee from your organization in this program, and I would welcome your nomination for the next cycle which begins in the summer of 1985. My Director of Research, Dr. Frederick Kiley (475-1914), will gladly answer any questions you or your staff may have about the Senior Research Fellows program.

Respectfully,
